

Paying OOS Subscription by Standing Order from your Bank Account

Payment of your annual membership subscription by Standing Order saves you the bother of remembering to pay each year and saves us time and money by not having to send out reminders. The payments are made automatically by your Bank on your written instruction, and the amount can only be changed by you. This arrangement can be cancelled by you at any time. Please note that a standing order is different from a direct debit, in that payments are made on your instructions, whereas a direct debit is a payment made at the request of the person receiving it.

To begin paying your subscription by Standing Order, please complete and return the form below.
